SALEM POLICE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES NEW OFFICERS

The Salem Police department welcomed three new officers to the force on Monday, June 13, during a swearing in ceremony at the Public Safety Building on Calhoun Street.

Now that they are officially sworn-in, officers Kevin Campbell, Blake Mitchell, and Tonya Wright will begin focusing their attention on 19 weeks of training at the Cardinal Criminal Justice Academy. That training will begin on June 20 and once it is completed, the three officers will go through 12 additional weeks of field training with a Salem Police Department training officer.

These three new officers join Aaron Gwin, who came to the Salem Police Department on May 16 after serving for seven years at the Roanoke City Police department. Officer Gwin is currently in the Salem PD's field training program.
